

EVERY-NAME INDEX of "TOWN OF EMERY CENTENNIAL 1889-1989" BOOK
(224 page publication – July 1989)

The book is a very interesting and extensive history of families who lived in the northwest Wisconsin area of Price County. The Centennial Committee that produced it must be congratulated for gathering the stories in this book! Use of this Every-Name Index now makes this book quickly and thoroughly available for family research. This is an extensive index and hopefully no names are missed. ENJOY !!

As you use this index and find names/pages, please read the entire page -- many persons are mentioned more than once on a page!! The index will be of special interest and use by anyone who has a copy of the book. Titles of family histories and stories are CAPITALIZED in this index. Some names are underlined to point out varied spellings of similar names. Alternate surnames of women are also included in parentheses. Also, page numbers are underlined for persons in photographs. References to schools and large lumber companies are not indexed because they appear very frequently.

A separate Town of Emery Officers alphabetical list appears on the final pages -- these names are also included in the Every-Name Index, however.

Prepared Jan.-Feb. 2012 by Edith E. Carpenter-Neu, the 2nd wife of Clarence "Bub" Royal Neu, Jr. Bub is a descendant of the Neu and Schoenborn families in the Town of Emery.
